

So They Can East Africa Immersion

Personally hosted by CEO & Co-founder
Cassandra Treadwell

This private Kenyan and Tanzanian experience hosted by Cassandra (Cass) Treadwell, CEO and co-founder of So They Can offers the opportunity to combine community education and social justice.

Spend time meeting the people involved and learning about So They Can's community projects in Nakuru and Pokot in Kenya and Babati in Tanzania while also visiting the Tarangire National Park for an African safari experience.
